(Acts 1:8-9)

Fr. Saju Thomas
Asst. Vicar

The narrow Bridge that has started from the day we were born in this world to the day we will breathe our last and that which will take us to our eternity is not easy, it has not been easy, it will not be easy any day. The only thing that we can do is to hold on to that one Divine Friend of ours who has given us this assurance that He will be with us till the end of this world. People get influenced by the company they keep, they gradually imbibe the qualities of their friends, be it good or bad. Christ has told us to love Him with all our heart and soul as it is mentioned in all the three synoptic gospels, anyone who loves his father or mother more than Him is not worthy to be called his disciples, and the reason is that if we love our creator more than anything else, we will easily love anybody else in this world, even our enemies. But if we love anybody or anything else more than Him, we will be worldlier and we cannot acquire His nature. In order to acquire His divine nature, we must have a close contact with Him. He should not be considered a spare wheel to be used whenever in need because that is what we do whenever we are in urgent need of a prayer to be answered, He should rather be our closest Friend who is always with us anytime...anywhere, in every breath of our life He should be there, if a day or half a day passes without calling out His name in prayer or so, it should make us insecure.

Once a little girl and her father were crossing a bridge. The father was kind of scared and asked the daughter, "Sweetheart, please hold my hand so that you don't fall into the river." The little girl said, "No Dad. You hold my hand." "What's the difference?" Asked the puzzled father. "There is a big difference," replied the girl. "If I hold your hand and something happens to me, chances are that I may let your hand go. But if you hold my hand, I know for sure that no matter what happens you will never let my hand go." The first case where the child is holding her father's hand is the case when we call out to Lord only when we need a help from Him and there are chances of us falling, seeing the problems because the grip is not strong enough, the second case is where Christ Himself has cling on us and won't let our hand go in any situation however big it maybe, because in the first place we ourselves have given Him that position in our life. Building up a close contact with Jesus isn't rocket science, call out His name in prayer, read the scriptures, meditate on it, confess your sins and repent, follow what the Lord has to say to us and see the mystical relationship grow.

VIRGIN ST. MARY OF THE HARVEST (Feast Day: May 15)

In origin this is an agricultural feast which arose from the needs of the farmers to seek God's help for a fruitful harvest. The farmers were at the mercy of the elements and depended upon sufficient rain and good weather. As a result they sought God's assistance and begged the intercession of Mary for their crops.

Saint Ephrem speaks of Mary in this regard when he says that Mary became of the field who received the grain of wheat in her womb and this grain of wheat, Jesus Christ our Lord, gives life to the world. Through the harvest we receive the gifts of bread and wine which become for us the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist.

SULOQO (Ascension) Feast Day: May 25

The Lord Jesus passed forty days on earth after His Resurrection from the dead, appearing continually in various places to His disciples, with whom He also spoke, ate, and drank, thereby further demonstrating His Resurrection. On this Thursday, the fortieth day after Easter (Kyamto), He appeared again in Jerusalem. After He had first spoken to the disciples about many things, He gave them His last commandment, that is, that they go forth and proclaim His Name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. But He also commanded them that for the present, they were not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait there together until they receive power from on high, when the Holy Spirit would come upon them. Saying these things, He led them to the Mount of Olives, and raising His hands, He blessed them; and saying again the words of the Father's blessing, He was parted from them and taken up. Immediately a cloud of light, a proof of His majesty, received Him. Sitting thereon as though on a royal chariot, He was taken up into Heaven, and after a short time was concealed from the sight of the disciples, who remained where they were with their eyes fixed on Him. At this point, two Angels in the form of men in white raiment appeared to them and said, "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into Heaven? This same Jesus, Who is taken up from you into Heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into Heaven" (Acts 1:11). These words, in a complete and concise manner, declare what is taught in the Symbol of Faith concerning the Son and Word of God. Therefore, having so fulfilled all His dispensation for us, our Lord Jesus Christ ascended in glory into Heaven, and sat at the right hand of God the Father. As for His sacred disciples, they returned from the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem, rejoicing because Christ had promised to send them the Holy Spirit.

It should be noted that the Mount of Olives is a Sabbath's day journey from Jerusalem, that is, the distance a Jew was permitted to walk on the day of the Sabbath. Ecumenius writes, "A Sabbath day's journey is one mile in length, as Clement says in his fifth Stromatis; it is two thousand cubits, as the Interpretation of the Acts states." They draw this conclusion from the fact that, while they were in the wilderness, the Israelites of old kept within this distance from the Holy Tabernacle, whither they walked on the Sabbath day to worship God.

APOSTLE JAMES (Sun of Zebedee)

The holy, glorious, all-laudable Apostle James, also known as James the Great was a son of Zebedee, the brother of the Apostle John and a fisherman. He and his brother John are known as the Sons of Thunder, because of their quick temper.

At the invitation of Jesus he left his nets to follow him and is counted among the Twelve Great Apostles. Belonging to Christ's 'inner circle', James was present on Mount Tabor for Christ's transfiguration and also for his suffering in the garden of Gethsemane. Following Pentecost, St. James preached in Spain, and upon his return to Jerusalem the Jews would argue with him vehemently concerning the Holy Scriptures. None could withstand his wisdom, however, seeing this, the Jews slandered him before Herod and among some false witnesses there was a certain Josias. But in hearing St. James' testimony, Josias believed and was condemned to death with James. Before the axe fell, St. James embraced and kissed this repentant false witness and said, "Peace and forgiveness to you!" St. James was martyred in the year AD 45 and was the first Apostle to die for Christ. His body was translated to Spain where his relics continue to work miracles even to this day.

APOSTLE JOHN

The holy, glorious and all-laudable Apostle and Evangelist John (also John the Theologian or John the Divine) was one of the original twelve Apostles, and wrote the Gospel bearing his name; three canonical letters: I John, II John, and III John; and the Book of Revelation. His symbol is the eagle. St. John was the son of Salome the myrrh-bearer and Zebedee, a fisherman. His brother was St. James, another apostle. In his own Gospel account, he refers to himself as "the disciple whom Jesus loved" rather than use his name. He was the youngest of the twelve apostles, and especially close to the Lord. This closeness is often portrayed in icons of the mystical supper, where St. John leans on Jesus.

He was present for the Transfiguration of Christ with Peter and his brother James. St. John was exiled to the island of Patmos by Emperor Domitian around 90-95 A.D., and it was there that he received and wrote the Book of Revelation.

INTERNATIONAL NURSES DAY 2017

“Whatever you do to the least of my brethren you do it to me”.
(St. Mathew 25:40)

Let us thank God for giving another May 12 to celebrate International Nurses day and to be privileged to be part of Jesus healing ministry.

The dedicated medical field members are angels in this world. For that we need to have a PRAYER MIND where P stands for 'Presence of mind through purity in heart', R stands for 'Respecting others through re-specting, A stands for 'Always alert and active and attentive through com-passion (means to be one with), Y stands for 'Yielding through surrendering emotional stability, R-relaxing others by relaxing ourselves. As St. James says we have been called for to do good for others and if not, we are doing a sin. Let us do something beautiful to be someone beautiful to God. It is right to remember Mother Theresa who accomplished Jesus commandments as “whatever you do to the least of my brethren, you do it to me”. Mother Theresa (1910-1997) was an Albanian Roman Catholic Nun who devoted her life in serving the poor and the destitute around the world. She spent many years in Kolkata, India where she founded the missionaries of charity, a religious congregation devoted for helping those in great need. She was awarded the Noble Peace Prize in 1979 and became a symbol of charitable and selfless work. In September 4 2016, she was canonized as Saint Theresa by the Roman Catholic Church.

Her inspiration for serving mankind was the love for Jesus Christ. She believed that each person she met is Jesus in disguise and welcomed them with a smile, for a smile is the beginning of love. Love cannot remain by itself as it does not have any meaning on its own. Love should be put into action and that action, is service. She was the mother of the world where she loved everyone and was loved in return. She believed that God will not ask how many good things you did, but how much of love did you put into your doing. So, let us be faithful in everything that we do and meet others with a smile as it is a gift of love. We should care for the sick and suffering as if they were Jesus in disguise. Say kind words which can be short and easy to speak but its echoes are truly endless. Let no one ever come to you and leave, without feeling better and happier. Be the living expression of God's love and kindness in every moment of our deeds. Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love for Jesus.

Remember, medical field is a divine field and a divine call for us to be in this field.

Wishing you all a Happy International Nurses Day including all the medical fellowship members.

FINDING THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE

There are 30 books of the Bible in this paragraph. Can you find them? This is a most remarkable puzzle. It was found by a gentleman in an airplane seat pocket on a flight from Los Angeles to Honolulu, keeping him occupied for hours. He enjoyed it so much; he passed it on to some friends. One friend from Illinois worked on this while fishing from his john boat. Another friend studied it while playing his banjo. Elanie Taylor, a columnist friend, was so intrigued by it she mentioned it in her weekly newspaper column. Another friend judges the job of solving this puzzle so involving, she brews a cup of tea to help her nerves. There will be some names that are really easy to spot. That's a fact. Some people, however, will soon find themselves in a jam. Especially since the book names that are not necessarily capitalized. Truthfully, from answers we get, we are forced to admit it usually takes a minister or a scholar to see some of them at the worst.

Research has shown that something in our genes is responsible for the difficulty we have in seeing the books in this paragraph. During a recent fund raising event, which featured this puzzle, the alpha delta Phi lemonad booth set a new record. The local paper, the chronicle, surveyed over 200 patrons who reported that this puzzle was of the most difficult they had ever seen. As Daniel Humana humbly puts it. "The books are all right here in plain view hidden from sight". Those able to find all of them will hear great lamentations from those who have to be shown. One revelation that may help is that books like Timothy and Samuel may occur without their numbers. Also keep in mind that punctuations and spaces in the middle are normal. A chipper attitude will help you compete really well against those who claim to know the answers. Remember, there is no need for a mad exodus; there really are 30 books of the Bible lurking somewhere in this paragraph waiting to be found.
