GLORY BE TO THE TRIUNE GOD!

"I am the Light of the world.

Whoever follows Me will never walk in darkness but will have the Light of life." (St. John 8:12)

This is one of the most powerful messages given to us by our Lord Jesus for our Salvation.

We read in the Holy Bible that God is the Light Who brings us from darkness into His Glorious and Magnificent Light.

Does 'darkness' refer only to the physical nightfall? It refers to the 'darkness' in spiritual self.

St. Paul teaches us (1 Thessalonians 5:23) of our spiritual being and reminds us (Romans 3:23) that when we sin, we fall short of the Lord's Glory. This will allow darkness to spiritually overtake our purposes and objectives in life, which in turn will lead us away from the correct paths.

In such situations too, our loving God is always there as a shining light to bring us back to Himself. We need to obey His Will in our lives, which will help in bringing us to Himself.

This Easter, may the Resurrection of our Lord bring us the eternal Light that will shine brightly in our lives and the lives of our children and bless us always.

Easter is celebrated not only as the Resurrection of our Lord, but also the victorious triumph of the true Light over the darkness that has been overshadowing humans ever since the fall of man. It is the most important celebration and is only next to Christmas.

We should understand that every moment, day, month and year is a gift that God gives us, out of His unconditional Love. Similar to new year's resolutions, we should take careful steps to ensure that every Easter, in the Light of Christ, we grow spiritually closer to our Lord.

We should try and understand His Will with the guidance of the Holy Church and the Holy Scriptures. This year, let us all take a unanimous decision to make ourselves and our children more dedicated towards our Lord.

Asst. Vicar

Glory be to the One Triune God!!!

Dearly Beloved,

The pain and sorrow in our hearts going through Good Friday & Holy Saturday gets miraculously metamorphosed in the early morning of Easter Sunday into unbridled jubilation & a relief that is inexpressible. The epochal event of Jesus Christ resurrecting in glory from a state of death, has changed the whole dynamics of human existence ever since. To say that there is no facet of our spiritual life that isn't either rooted in or inspired by the Resurrection event, would be an understatement.

Christ's Resurrection redefined the gloom associated with death in the history of humankind ever since. Jesus Christ in compliance with the Father's salvific plan allowed himself to be led like a lamb for slaughter, and as with every human life in the post-Eden era, Death swallowed him up inevitably. But then, just like the Phoenix, which is one of the ancient symbols of Christian belief in the Resurrection, Christ broke the shackles of death and rose to life victoriously on the third day. He proved that even Death could be overcome, and extended this promise of 'continuing to live even after death' to all those who believed in Him, thus prompting to burst into a song of praise –

“O Death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (I Corinthians 15:55-58)

Therefore, Christians ever since have bid farewell to their departed ones not with despair & a sense of utter loss, rather with hope & faith that “Christ was raised from the dead, as the first fruit of those who have died” (I Corinthians 15:20), and all departed souls will similarly be raised to life when the time comes.

The Scriptures reveal clearly the joy of the Apostles & believers on seeing the risen Christ on different occasions. In 2024, as we kiss the glorious red garb used to adorn the Holy Cross on Easter, let us marvel like St. Thomas at his wounds, though now without their sting. Let us remind ourselves again of what a mighty God we serve, the one & only omnipotent God who shattered the gates of Hell and brought much needed light to those in darkness.

God becoming incarnate paved the way for a new level of intimacy & personal bond between God and humankind. Jesus Christ willingly faced all the pressures, temptations, trials & tribulations an ordinary human encounters from the time of birth till adulthood. But it is the culmination of His salvific ministry – Christ's Passion and Death – that took this sacrifice to a whole new level. Jesus Christ endured personal humiliation, public torture & an excruciatingly painful death, and therefore we can be assured that the God we serve knows what we go through. He has experienced the heights of joy right down to the abyss of pain & despair, and therefore He is there by our side always, knowing how much we need His presence & His grace.

May the joy, peace and sheer power that the risen Christ embodies, be with each one of us & our families, now and always.

Let us rejoice, for Christ is Risen. Indeed He is Risen.

H.G. Kuriakose Mar Gregorios Metropolitan (Pampady Dayara) – April 5th

We celebrate the 59th commemoration of H.G. Kuriakose Mar Gregorios Metropolitan, affectionately known as Pampady Thirumeni on April 5th.

Thirumeni, effectively an un-canonized saint of Malankara Church had been simple, humble priest and a man of great faith who possessed the spiritual gift of love. Thirumeni was born in the traditional Karingamattom family in Pezhamattam near Pampadi to Chacko of Moolakkara house and Iliche of Velloor Vellikottil house. Thirumeni's father desired him to be a priest. Thirumeni humbled himself accepting God's Call and obliged to the desire of Mar Dionysius, to get ordained to the order of a priest.

In February 1899, at the age of 14, Kuriakose was ordained to the first order of deaconate, at Pampadi Church. Dn. Kuriakose then joined Old Seminary (Kottayam), for theological studies, under the discipleship of Vattasseril Geevarghese Malpan and Madathil Alexander Malpan. Dn. Kuriakose was ordained as a priest on July 8, 1906 and on the very next day as a Ramban by Murimattom Paulose Mar Gregorios.

Ramban Kuriakose was appointed by Mar Dionysius to assist the Manager Kallasseril Punnose Ramban (who was later consecrated as the Third Catholicos) at the Parumala Seminary. Kuriakose Ramban was consecrated as a Bishop with title of Gregorios by Basalios Geevarghese II on February 16, 1929. His Grace was the first Bishop consecrated by the third Catholicos and was given the charge of Kottayam Diocese.

Pampadi Thirumeni was very particular to observe the traditional sequences and to use lyrical wordings of all worshipping services. Thirumeni has corrected things if they ever went wrong and was very strict in his tri-hour prayers, lent and fasting. Thirumeni shared everybody's concerns and worries; helping, praying and inspiring them putting their needs before his own. Being in the presence of Thirumeni was a great, graceful and special experience for all, especially those who had worldly life and burdens comforted.

Thirumeni became sick before ageing due to severe fasting and night prayers. In March 1965, Thirumeni became sick, bedridden and hospitalized. On April 5, 1965 Thirumeni, the great sage of Tabor, entered into heavenly abode. His tomb is at the Tabor Dayara.

H.G. Geevarghese Mar Philoxenos Metropolitan – April 17th

Geevarghese Mar Philoxenos, affectionately known as Puthencavil Kochu Thirumeni, was an administrator, orator and an advocate of Orthodox and the Catholicate of the Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church of India.

K. T. Geevarghese was born in Puthencavu, a village on the banks of the River Pamba, as the second son of Thoma Kathanar of Kizhakethallekal family and Rahelamma of Chungathil family of Koipuram.

He was ordained as a Deacon and Priest in 1929 by St. Mar Dionysious, who was his mentor. He was ordained as Ramban on November 6, 1929 and consecrated as Bishop with the name Geevarghese Mar Philoxenos, Metropolitan of Thumpamon, at the Parumala Seminary on November 3, 1930 by H.H. Baselios Geevarghese II.

As he was the youngest bishop at the time, he was referred to as 'Kochu Thirumeni'. During his lifetime, Kochu Thirumeni headed many organizations and established many educational institutions. Kochu Thirumeni was a strong influence on many of the clergy and along with Vattasseril Geevarghese Mar Dionysius persuaded H.H. Baselos Marthoma Mathews I to go for Theological studies at Calcutta.

He also led the legal battles against Mar Ivanios to regain control over some of the schools which were handed over to the latter for management while Mar Dionysius, undertook a trip to Mardin. His command over English, Malayalam and Syriac, was unparalleled; his voice was absolutely mesmerizing. Kochu Thirumeni entered into heavenly abode on April 17, 1951 at the young age of 54. His mortal remains were interred at St. Mary's Orthodox Cathedral, Puthencavu where the mortal remains of Mar Thoma VI and Mar Thoma VIII are also entombed.

On his tomb is recorded the following description of Kochu Thirumeni by Vattakkunel Mathews Achen (later Catholicos Mathews I): "His presence was joyful, his voice sweet, his words inspiring, his manners endearing, his smile unforgettable". The Holy Church honored Thirumeni by conferring the title Catholicate "Rathna Deepam".

Feast of St. George the Great Martyr – April 23rd

This Saint was the son of a wealthy and high-ranking Cappadocian family. Having lost his father at the age of 10, his mother Polychronia, (had been a Christian) brought up her son in the evangelical virtues. He was handsome, intelligent and refined in manner.

At the age of 18, he embarked on a military career. He was quickly promoted to the rank of tribune in the imperial guard. When he was returning to Cappadocia after a victorious campaign and passing through the region of Attalia in Pamphylia, he freed the king's daughter, who had been left at the mercy of a dangerous dragon.

He killed the beast with a divine strength that he was given, by his faith. The local pagans, after marveling at this demonstration of strength given by our Lord

Christ to His faithful ones, converted themselves to Christianity. It was during this time of great persecution led by emperor Diocletian that Saint George came up publicly to confess Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour.

He gave away all his goods to the poor, freed his slaves and went to court. He appeared in the midst of the assembly and reproached the sovereign for unjustly shedding the innocent blood of Christians. Though the emperor offered to honour the Saint if he would turn away from his faith, the Saint firmly reaffirmed his faith in Lord Christ. The emperor ordered several tortures and afflicted the Saint very badly. In all this, the Saint gave glory and thanks to God. Apart from beaten, having stone tied on his chest in prison, making him spin on torture wheels, putting him inside a quicklime ditch for 3 days, forcing him to run in shoes with red-hot nails, making him to drink poison, he was made to suffer so much to deny his faith.

Just like the friends of Daniel, God saved the Saint from all these troubles and many people who saw his great faith and endurance, gave their lives for Lord Christ and got converted into Christianity. Finally, the Saint was beheaded and he entered into eternal abode with the Lord. According to the Saint's desire, his servant took the Saint's precious relics back to his country, to Lydda (Diospolis) in Palestine, where they built a great Church in his honour. Innumerable miracles were worked in the great Church. The veneration and popularity of Saint George can be seen throughout the Christian world with many Churches were dedicated to him. He is considered as Saint, who by his devoted, dedicated, patient, unchallenging love and his trust in Christ, overcame all his battles with the Grace of Christ.
